

NEWPORT TOWNSHIP POLICE DEPARTMENT

MONTHLY CRIME REPORT

MONTH OF: January 2010

GLEN LYON

Jan 4 - Police responded to a report of a burglary at Rock Street Apartments. A female had some jewelry taken and a camera

Jan 7 - Police served a bench warrant on a male on Vine Street. Upon taken him into custody, a large box of drug paraphernalia was in plain view. He will be receiving additional charges

Jan 8 - Police responded to a report of a possible rape at an address on Railroad Street that occurred months ago. This is currently under investigation by full time officers of this department.

Jan 14 - A male wanted by Wilkes-Barre City Police was taken into custody from an Arch Street home.

Jan 21 - Police responded to a report of a possible rape. This is also under investigation by full time officers of this department

Jan 22 - Police took a man from a Coal Street home into custody on 302 Warrant and transported him to WBGH to be evaluated.

Jan 23 - Police responded to a report of a male that was staying at St. Adalberts Church with V.I.S.O.N who was acting disorderly. He was removed.

Jan 24 - Police took another Coal Street man into custody on a 302 warrant.

WANAMIE

Jan 10 - Police responded to Belles Road for a male that was overdosing on heroin. He was transported by EMS to the hospital. He will be receiving charges for possession of heroin and paraphernalia.

Jan 21 - Police responded to a report of a burglary on Vandermark Road. Multiple items were taken. Police suspect the victims son who was just evicted last month and who is also a heroin user.

Jan 26 - Police received a report of a theft of $5,550 from a contractor who agreed to do work, was paid for half, and did not complete any work. This is currently under investigation.

SHEATOWN

Jan 16 - Police responded to a report of a physical domestic in progress on Simon Street, husband assaulting and choking his wife. He was taken into custody without delay and is facing charges.

Jan 24 - Police responded to a report of a father and son physical domestic. The son was taken into custody after striking his father in the head causing injury.

ALDEN or LEE

NO MAJOR INCIDENTS REPORTED

RIDGE VIEW

Jan 15 - A Wilkes-Barre man was arrested for drug possession when he was observed operating a vehicle on private property just off the IP road.

Jan 26 - Police responded to a report of illegal dumping in the woods behind Ridgeview. Misc. household garbage was dumped. This is currently under investigation and Police are confident they will have this solved

Submitted by Chief Robert Impaglia